Disclaimer

This document is a comprehensive disclaimer against any damages and/or liabilities against the Finnish Society of Edmonton and its members ("Society") and the Board of Directors of the Finnish Society of Edmonton ("Board").

The Society and the Board shall not be held liable for theft, fire, or loss of, or damage to any property on Society property or during a Society meeting, trip, cultural endeavor, or event sponsored by the Society. The Society and the Board shall not be held liable, directly or vicariously, for any accident, upset, injury or death to any person or persons, while such person or persons, whether members of the Society or not, are on Society property or attending an event, trip, endeavour or gathering sponsored by, paid for by, or organized by the Society, alone or in conjunction with any other organization or company.

Neither the Board nor the Society shall be held responsible for any accident, negligence, damage, injury, theft, death, financial loss, or loss of property caused by an outside or contracted agency or person or any Society member or any guest or family member of a Society member or Board member.

Society Members are to sign below to acknowledge that they have read and understood this disclaimer.
